Ada Officer Succumbs To Gun Shot Wound

Death Today the Result of Wound Inflicted Yesterday by a Coalgate Bootlegger, Who Shot Nebhut When He Attempted His Arrest.

After lingering for twenty-four hours at the door of death, the spirit of P. G. (Gus) Nebhut laid down its burden of life and crossed the threshold to the great beyond. Death came at 10 o'clock this morning as a result of a gunshot wound inflicted yesterday by Ben Benson of Coalgate who shot the deputy sheriff when he and other officers undertook to arrest him at the Byrd hotel on a whisky charge.

Mr. Nebhut was rushed to the hospital yesterday immediately after being shot where his wounds were examined and cared for. It was discovered that the fatal bullet had entered the front part of his body on the left side at the lower border of the ribs. Running downward, it passed through his stomach and the lower part of his kidney and lodged in the deep muscles of his back.

A large hole was torn through the stomach, causing a severe internal hemorrhage and an enormous loss of blood, which an hour on the operating table could not wholly offset. He appeared to be getting better after the operation until near midnight last night when he began to show signs of relapse. He continued to grow weaker throughout the remainder of the night and this morning until the hour of his death, but was conscious up to the very last moment.

With him at the time of his death were his wife and two daughters, Inez and Linnie who live with their mother in this city; his mother, Mrs. Lillie Nebhut and two brothers of Elk City, Oklahoma, and a few close friends who were permitted to enter his room at the hospital.

The body will be taken to Stonewall for burial in the Stonewall cemetery by the side of a son who died in this city three years ago.

Immediately after being notified of Mr. Nebhut's death County Attorney Wayne Wadlington withdrew the charge of assault with intent to kill and filed a charge of murder against Benson, the man who fired the fatal shot.

The culprit is in the county jail recovering from five gunshot wounds in his legs which were inflicted by officers yesterday in the running fight which, starting in front of the Byrd hotel immediately after Nebhut was shot, was carried to the south limits of the city before he was captured.

The shooting of the officer has caused great deal of excitement in the city and it was thought at a time that the prisoner was not safe in the jail but order prevails on the streets today and apparently no violence is being planned.

Dodgers were circulated on the streets of the city this morning immediately after the announcement of Mr. Nebhut's death asking that all citizens who are in favor of better law enforcement attend a meeting at the county house tonight, but it is announced that this meeting will not be held until one month next week.

'REIGN OF TERROR' NIPPED BY POLICE

Imported Gunmen Caught By Kansas City Police In Raid.

(By the Associated Press) KANSAS CITY, March 12.—One hundred fifty patrolmen, detectives, motor cycle police and federal officers today invaded the north end section of Kansas City, known as "Little Italy" to thwart a threatened "reign of terror" by imported gunmen.

The raid was directed by Charles Edwards, chief of police, who announced he had information that gunmen had been brought here from New Orleans by the underworld element to kill police and federal officials.

A cordon was thrown about the district and squads of officers entered the circle and began raids on notorious resorts. Instructions were given to arrest all suspicious persons, seize all fire arms and search all questionable persons for intoxicants and shoot if necessary.

Sentiment High Following Battle With Negroes at Springfield, Ohio.

(By the Associated Press) SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Mar. 12.—James White, a young negro, captured in the open country by a posse of farmers, shortly before noon after a running battle, confessed to police that he was guilty of the shooting of patrolman Ryan in last night's racial disorders.

White has been lodged in the county jail which is strongly guarded by national guards.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Mar. 12.—Springfield was quiet this morning following a night of disorder in which Patrolman Joseph Ryan and a negro were wounded in interchanges of shots between police and negroes.

Three companies of Ohio National Guardsmen consisting of 150 officer and men under command of Lieutenant Colonel Horner, were on duty today with headquarters at the city hall. Military law has not been declared, it having been announced that the troops would merely aid the local authorities in maintaining order.

Although the situation was quiet early today and no further trouble seemed imminent both military and civil authorities said they would not relax their vigilance and are taking all precautions to avoid a recurrence of the riot trouble.

Sheriff David Jones, of Clark county, today was placed in complete charge of the situation here growing out of racial disorders last night, which culminated in the shooting of a patrolman and a negro. An order was immediately issued forbidding all public gatherings after 6 o'clock in the evening and ordering stoppage of street car service and automobile traffic after 7 p. m.

ARDMORE, Mar. 12.—A dying statement by Jake L. Hamon, reputed millionaire and railroad man and republican national committeeman from Oklahoma, in which he said Clara Smith Hamon shot him as he lay on the bed in his own room of the suite they occupied at a hotel here, was given to the jury today in the trial of the woman on a murder charge.

Another witness told the story of Clara's flight after the shooting.

Former Officer Testifies. W. B. Nichols, former chief of police of Ardmore and business associate of Hamon's, told the jury that Jake L. Hamon after telling him he knew he would die from the bullet wound, told him Clara had fired the bullet with a pistol she held in her hand as she stood at the bedside stroking his head with her left hand.

Mr. Nichols referred to Jake Hamon as the greatest republican in the country and said the dying man had told him of names of certain applications for office under the new administration which he should take direct to Warren Harding, the new president.

Mr. Nichols assailed by the defense counsel for not having assisted Russell Brown, former county attorney in his investigation of the shooting, said Jake Hamon in making the alleged dying statement had expected a promise from him that it would not be revealed until absolute necessity.

Discussed Politics. Mr. Nichols said Hamon discussed political and business affairs rationally, at the same time saying he knew he would die and remarked, "O, what's the use."

The former chief of police said he tried to buy up Hamon, telling him that they had a trip to Palm Beach planned, but Hamon replied, "Yes, where I am going there will be plenty of palms, but no beach."

Nichols said he was also present in Hamon's office the day following the shooting, when Frank Ketch, former business manager of Hamon's told Clara Smith Hamon she had to leave. Ketch said he had never butted into her affairs before but she had to go now as Mrs. Hamon was coming from Chicago and the Hamon family had to be spared further disgrace.

"You talk as if I did it," he quoted Clara as saying. Ketch replied he did not care to discuss that and Clara said, according to Nichols, "He will tell you he did it himself."

Clara then said Jake Hamon had told her she could have five thousand dollars with which to go away and Ketch agreed to get it for her.

Taxi Driver Testifies. Everett Sallis, a Dallas taxi cab driver, detailed the trip from there west to Cisco, Texas, with Clara Smith Hamon as a passenger saying the young woman had told him she had shot a man, hoped he would die and wanted to know the bet pistol, old or new, with which to kill a man. He said she traveled with two pistols on her lap and was afraid when she saw officers. Sallis admitted his first statement regarding the affair was made to a newspaperman for $60.

In re-direct examination by Freeling, Sallis declared he recently had a conference at Tulsa with Clara Hamon and also said that statements made and signed by him were his true version of association with Clara Smith.

Perry Foster, a garage employee was the first state witness. He testified that a number of times he had seen Clara Hamon with a pistol. The day before Hamon was shot he said Clara came to the garage and ordered the two spare tires taken off the back of her automobile and two extra casing placed on, as she said she was going to take a long trip.

In Big Hurry. He said on the morning following Mr. Hamon's shooting, Clara came to the garage and asked that the tire change be made quickly as she had far to go. Foster said the young woman was very nervous. He said he saw no bruises on Clara's face or hands. On cross examination Foster said at the time Clara Hamon came to the garage he had heard Hamon had been shot.

THE USE OF SICKNESS

"HERE is the most wonderful book ever offered the public," said the agent with enthusiasm. "It is entitled 'Psychology and Disease,' and every page has an astounding revelation. When this book is universally read and understood, there won't be any disease in the world."

"Which is equivalent to saying that when the pigs are flying, a man with the rheumatism will get a job as a contortionist," said Mrs. Curfew. "I have listened to agents for many years, and have heard all kinds of silly talk, but yours is the worst yet. You can't convince me that the day will ever come when a man with the jumping rheumatism, such as my husband is afflicted with, can sit down and cure himself by reading a book, even if the book is endorsed by congressmen and justices of the peace and other dignitaries without number. 'If disease ever is banished from the world, I have no doubt that something worse will come to take its place. I believe that everything in this world is here for a good purpose, even if it doesn't look that way at first glance.'

"Early this spring there was an epidemic of measles in this neighborhood, and of course my little granddaughter had to come to visit me. She never comes when the health conditions are all that could be desired, but just as sure as there is smallpox or seven year itch or some other contagious disease rampant, that angel child comes to spend a few days with her beloved grandmother, and she catches everything there is going."

"She hadn't been here two days before she was down sick. She had more measles than I ever saw in one collection before, and her face was a sight to be seen. I was inclined to murmur and repine, for I was just done with my housecleaning and was so tired I felt as though I'd like to lie down and sleep for six months, and there I was with a sick child in the house, and I was to be up night and day seeing that she didn't catch cold, for if a child catches cold when she has that disease, some of the measles are sure to strike in, and then she goes blind or loses her hearing or becomes an idiot."

"I was complaining to Mr. Curfew, and saying harsh, bitter things, when a boy came to the door with a telegram. It was from Cousin Susan, and she said she was coming on the night train with her three children to spend a week with me. She invites herself that way about once a year, and I always dread her coming, for her children are holy terrors, and there is no peace where they are."

"I never had a good excuse for heading Cousin Susan off before, and she had become a nightmare to me. But on that occasion I had an excuse all ready made. I sent back a telegram saying that my granddaughter was in the house with an aggravated attack of measles, and a policeman with a sawed-off shotgun was guarding the approaches to the house. Of course I didn't use exactly those words, but that was the meaning of my dispatch, and Cousin Susan had to take her offspring and unload them on her Aunt Maria, who had never suffered a visitation of that sort before."

"This shows that diseases have their use, and even a few measles in the house are a wellspring of pleasure, when we regard them properly, with a determination to realize our blessings. So I have no use for any book that shows how to abolish diseases, and now must disperse, for I have a hundred things to do."

Arabs Suffer From Famine.

"The Drinkers of Sunshine," as the Arab shepherds call themselves, are on the verge of starvation throughout Algeria, and unless wheat is imported from America it may have nothing but sunshine as a steady diet during the winter.

The threatening famine is the result of a year's drought.

Seventy-five per cent of the sheep in Algeria have died as a result of the drought, and the Arab "Drinkers of Sunshine," dreamers and philosophers, incapable of any work but that of guarding their flocks, are in dire straits.

Out of Date Now.

"Did you hear what that young woman said?"

"No. What was it?"

"She told the young fellow with her that she 'loved to cook.'"

"Ah! An old-fashioned girl. She's using the 'vamping' methods popular twenty years ago."

GRAIN GROWING
CONDITION GOOD

Much of Last Year's Crop Still in Hands of the Farmers.

Except for certain sections of the state where the green bugs already have made serious inroads on the crops, the growing condition of wheat, rye, barley and oats is good. The March report of the Oklahoma co-operative crop reporting service operated by the United States department of agriculture and the state board of agriculture says:

The soil moisture has been ample, the report states, and the mild weather has stimulated growth. However, indications point to another outbreak of the green bug, it is reported, as far west as Washita county, north to Garfield county, northeast to Ottawa and generally through the south and central portions of the state.

Greater Damage May Occur.

Some fields already are beginning to show the effects of the insects work, which, unless checked by the rapid increase of parasitic enemies, may cause damage during March and April comparable with that in 1907. In that year 200,000 bushels of the barley crop were lost in Oklahoma, May in Kansas and July in Minnesota.

The bureau of crop estimates in co-operation with the Oklahoma board of agriculture reports a greater percentage of corn remaining on farms than in any recent year. Forty-three percent of the crop is estimated as still remaining on the farms. The quality of corn raised was good, the report states, and the percentage merchantable considerably above the 1919 crop.

Land Values Grow Little.

Ten million, six hundred thousand bushels of wheat still remain on the farms, or 15 percent of the total crop. Thirty-eight percent of the oats crop is unsold, or 18,000,000 bushels. Of the barley crop, 25 percent as compared with 30 percent in March, 1921, remains on the farms.

There has been little change in the value of Oklahoma's farm lands during the year, according to the report. Instead of showing the steady increase of the past, they have remained stationary. In recent years the average value of plow lands has increased from 9 to 16 percent each year, rising from $27 an acre in 1916 to $47 in 1920. The average value of poor plow lands and farm lands without improvements show a slight decline, the report states.

PROHIBIT POLICE
WEARING MONOCLE

BERLIN.—An order forbidding the wearing of the monocle by officers and members of the Security Police, issued by the Prussian minister of the interior, has brought down upon the minister a veritable avalanche of abuse. It also has evoked reams of argument in favor of the ancient institution of the single eye-glass.

The minister described the wearing of the monocle as "an unbecoming habit," attributed to the vanity of officers rather than to any weakness of the eye.

His critics accuse him of being deficient in anatomical knowledge, of making a grand stand play to the proletariat, and of a malicious attempt to overthrow an old, honored, and common German institution.

A man's two eyes are very seldom of equal soundness, it is pointed out, and the use of spectacles might injure a sound eye, while aiding the weak member. Therefore, it is argued, the custom is well established on physical grounds.

The majority of the commentators scornfully reject the minister's reasons for the order—that the monocle is an affection and snacks of monarchical times. They argue that the one eye-glass custom prevails in such democratic countries as England and even to some extent in America.

One participant in the fray thinks the monocle wearer is not getting a square deal. Any man who can manage to hold a round piece of glass between his eye-brow and his cheek-bone ought to be rewarded with a medal of merit for exceptional skill, instead of being reprimanded.

REVOLTS SPREAD OVER RUSSIA

The Food Situation Grows Acute; Troops Nearing Petrograd.

(By the Associated Press) LONDON, March 11.—Trustworthy news received from the interior of Russia, says a dispatch to the London Times from Reval, shows that anti-soviet revolts are spreading throughout the country. The food situation is becoming catastrophic. No food trains have reached the country from Siberia since February 11th. The situation is made far more serious through the congestion of the transport system.

It is announced, the dispatch continued, that forty thousand communist troops are approaching Petrograd, but that their loyalty is doubted. Heavy fighting continues in Petrograd.

CONFISCATING LANDS
FOR IRISH PEASANTS

DUBLIN, Mar. 11.—The Daily Freeman's department of agriculture is dealing with what is regarded as the most important work of the Irish republican government—the alienation of land from the big estates of landlords and its distribution among small farmers, who have not enough land to earn a living.

Since last April when there was a revival of the "Land War" which has occupied such a conspicuous place in Ireland's history, the Daily's so-called "Land Judges" have dealt with 229 cases involving about 50,000 Irish acres. An Irish acre is a third again as large as an American acre.

In 83 of these cases 20,875 acres were "alienated," that is, taken by decree from big estates and sold to small farmers who were able to prove that they did not possess sufficient land to provide a living for themselves and families. In 67 cases judgment was given against the "claimant," the former in favor of the "resister," the landlord with a big estate.

More than 100 cases are pending most of them in Roscommon which is in a highly disturbed state. If the land judges are not permitted to deal with these cases, Sinn Fein fears another upheaval in the spring. Landlords in the districts affected are said to view the situation with great anxiety.

TAR AND FEATHERS FOR SPEED DEMONS AT TULSA

SAND SPRINGS, Mar. 10.—

Threats that motorists caught indulging in high and dangerous rates of speed in their travel along the Sand Springs hard-surfaced road connecting this city with Tulsa will be introduced to a coat of tar and feathers, were made at a meeting here last week of citizens of Sand Springs and Park View.

The threats were the direct result of injuries recently received by an aged woman who was knocked down and run over by an automobile which, she says, was traveling at a high rate of speed. This accident touched off the smoldering wrath of the citizens of these towns and Sand Springs. There have been a number of automobile accidents in the past along the Sand Springs-Tulsa road.

Many suggestions were made for stopping promiscuous speeding. Most of the offenders, it was stated, are motorists from Tulsa who delight in letting out their cars on the Sand Springs road, an excellent speedway, to the danger of life of residents thereon.

Incorporation papers which will make the settlements named, exclusive of Sand Springs into a town, are now before the governor. It has been indicated the charter will be signed late this week.

Working early and late—lifting, carrying, and the heaviest of household duties—is it any wonder that it results in backaches and kindred ills. But every woman who suffers as Mrs. Fisher did should profit by her experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

After doctoring with different doctors and not getting relief, I had almost given up hopes when my sister told me of Lydia E. Drs. Powers and Powers
Chiropractors

Both Dr. Powers and his wife, Mrs. Powers have diplomas from the Carver Chiropractic college at Oklahoma City, at which institution Dr. Carver himself took a post graduate course of lectures. The offices of Drs. Powers and Powers are located at 114 1-2 East Main, where they have a four room apartment. Their phone number is 721 and their office hours 8:30 to 11:30 a. m. and 1:00 to 5:30 p. m.

Drs. Powers and Powers are thoroughly conversant with the Chiropractic science of adjusting displaced bones and organs of the human body, and have been very successful in combatting many forms of bodily ills.

A graduate of this profession should be equipped with a thorough knowledge of the human body, the location of every organ, its function, and its relative position too, and its dependency upon the nervous system, the location of every nerve center and its relative influence and control over certain parts of the human body. He must be thus equipped to properly locate the cause of disease and to successfully perform the necessary adjusting indicated by the symptoms.

Dr. Powers is a most conscientious practitioner devoting himself earnestly to the treatment of his patients, and has one of the best equipped electrical rooms south of Chicago.

Drs. Powers and Powers have a very large practice and have made many friends in and around Ada, since coming here over seven years ago. They are installing Vapor Baths in their apartment, which will be one of a very few in the state.

PRESERVING OLD GLORY.

Time has surely drawn from the hearts of Americans the bitterness of the struggle of half a century ago, leaving in its place only memories of heroic deeds, glorious actions and hallowed memories. The sting of defeat, on the one hand, has been allayed by broad consideration, and the victors' chant subdued by the splendid attitudes of the conquered. And so one may touch upon the subject of the Civil War without rancor and without exciting sectional prejudice. One may hold up for commemoration incidents and heroes, knowing full well that the need of applause will be as wholehearted from one part of the nation as the other.

Thus it is that Americans, North and South, East and West point in appreciation of the work of Gutzon Borglum, famous sculptor, who has set out to carve out of solid stone, some of the greatest moments and greatest actors in the drama of civil strife.

Upon the side of a mountain near Atlanta, Georgia, Borglum will picture in enduring stone, the ride of Stuart, the stand of Stonewall Jackson, and defense of Lee, and the matchless charge of Forest. This huge monolith, when completed, will depict the South's story of the war, as it has never been depicted before. It will be the world's most colossal piece of sculpture and will portray more than any other piece of sculpture or any painting.

"Time's eternal camping ground," for the men who wore the gray will be more gloriously remembered because of this huge work.

And it is a noble work, because a nation is only as great as its traditions. Had not the scars of war healed, and were we all not proud of the respective records of the Civil War, it might be hazardous to leave to posterity such a reminder of other days, but people whose forefathers wore the victorious blue will pay just as wholehearted homage at Borglum's shrine as those whose forefathers marched to war by the strains of Dixie.

Song and story fade as time goes on. History becomes dim and indistinct through generations, but the stone mountain in Georgia will ever truthfully recite for future generations, the bravery, the nobleness and the tragedy of American's one internal strife.

LOYALTY.

You see, my kind of loyalty was loyalty to one's country, not to its office-holders. The country is the real thing, the substantial thing, the eternal thing; it is the thing to watch over, and care for, and be loyal to; institutions are extraneous, they are its mere clothing, and clothing can wear out, become ragged, cease to be comfortable, cease to protect the body from winter disease and death. To be loyal to rags, to shout for rags, to worship rags, to die for rags—that is a loyalty of unreason, it is pure animal; it belongs to monarchy, was invented by monarchy; let monarchy keep it. I was from Connecticut, whose constitution declares "that all political power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded on their authority and instituted for their benefit; and that they have at all times an undeniable and indefeasible right to alter their form of government in such a manner as they may think expedient." Under that gospel the citizen who thinks he sees that the commonwealth political clothes are worn out, and yet holds his peace and does not agitate for a new suit, is disloyal; he is a traitor. That he may be the only one who thinks he sees this decay does not excuse him; it is his duty to agitate anyway, and it is the duty of the others to vote him down if they do not see the matter as he does.—Mark Twain in "Connecticut Yankee."

ABROAD AT HOME.

PLACE. A motion picture theater in a remote county town.

TIME: Any night.

A motion picture weekly is on the bill. First there is a scene from Dublin and then the audience in this tiny nook of the hills is taken across the channels to Paris where, on the Champs Elysee, it meets President Millerand, who has just stepped out of a limousine.

A moment or two in Paris and then to Trafalgar square, London, where a crowd of Englishmen is holding a meeting about something or other. Now back to New York. A bit of Broadway. Some of these folks in the theater have never been on a railroad train.

Washington next! A brief stop at the White House. The president is driving out of the White House grounds. He bows and smiles and lifts his hat.

And so a pretty fair section of the world, its life and its people, is brought to this village in a pocket of the hills.

In its function as a tourist's guide who can take remote communities around the world in a beam of light, the movie performs an important civilizing service.

The fact that the center of population is in an Indiana cornfield should remind us that much of our prosperity centers in the crop belt.

It will soon be warm enough for the young lady down the street to worry about the street light illuminating the the front porch hammock.

STATE LEADERS ALL LIVE BUT TWO

Governor's History Given; Two Die During Past Year.

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY.—Of the eleven governors of Oklahoma and the territory who have served since the territory was opened to settlement in 1889, all of them are living except two—Andrew J. Seay, appointed by President Harrison in 1891 and T. B. Ferguson, appointed by President Roosevelt in 1901. Seay died four years ago in California and Ferguson died here last month.

Six of the territorial governors were republicans in politics and one democratic. Since the inauguration of C. N. Haskell, the first elected governor of Oklahoma on a democratic ticket, all succeeding governors have been democrats. W. C. Renfro, appointed by President Cleveland in 1893, was the only democratic territorial governor.

Territorial Governor Seay and Governor Williams have been the two unmarried men to sit in the governor's chair since the territorial days of the state.

The list of governors, appointment or election and political fair follows:

George W. Steele, former Indiana congressman and Civil War veteran living at Marion, Ind., republican. Appointed by Harrison in 1889.

Andrew J. Seay, appointed from Missouri, where he was a republican candidate for congress against "Silver Dick" Bland and also served on the Missouri bench. Died four years ago in California. Appointed by Harrison in 1891 to succeed Steele, who resigned.

W. C. Renfro, mining operator with interests in the Joplin-Miami lead and zinc district, democrat. Appointed in 1893 by Cleveland.

Cassius M. Barues, telegraph operator in the Union army during the Civil War, now working a "trick" in the Western Union offices at Emporia, Kan., republican. Appointed by McKinley in 1897.

William M. Jenkins, now living at Sapulpa, a former Kansan and prominent in the McKinley administration, republican. Appointed in 1901.

T. B. Ferguson, former Kansan, died here last month, republican. Appointed by Roosevelt late in 1901 to succeed Jenkins.

Frank Frantz, now living in Denver, appointed by Roosevelt in 1905, republican nominee for governor immediately after statehood.

Charles N. Haskell, former Ohioan, first elected governor of Oklahoma as democrat. Now living in New York.

Lee Cruce, second governor of Oklahoma, democrat, elected in 1910, defeating Joseph W. McNeal, republican. Now living part of the time at Ardmore and the remainder in New Mexico.

Robert L. Williams, democrat, elected governor in 1914, now on federal bench at Muskogee.

J. B. A. Robertson, democrat, present governor, elected in 1918.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE INCREASES FOR YEAR

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY.—The scholastic enumeration in Oklahoma for 1920 was 673,106, or an increase of 30.5 percent in the last decennial period, according to a report issued here today by R. H. Wilson, state superintendent of public instruction. The total expenditures of public schools for the last year was listed at $22,826,946.57, compared with an expenditure of $8,600,450.32 in 1910.

The total enrollment in schools of the state was reported as 580, in the schools and 52.8 percent of the enumeration in daily attendance. Receipts into the schools was 282 with an average daily attendance the enumeration enrolled in the amount of 355,009, or 87.5 percent of given at $22,669,755.04.

The total enumeration of schools in Oklahoma in 1910 was 515,478 according to the report, and the enrollment 415,116. The average daily attendance was 236,548. Receipts from local district taxation in 1910 amounted to $4,323,640, the figures show, which, together with $4,800,952 from other sources made the total receipts $9,124,592 in 1910.

With the exception of 1913, in which year the system of making the enumeration was changed, each year during the last 11 years shows a substantial increase in enumeration, enrollment and attendance. The percentages of enumeration enrolled, and in average daily attendance shows the high mark in 1914, and the low mark touched in daily attendance in 1918.

The difference between the total receipts and expenditures for each year varies from one million to ten million in the eleven years. In all instances the expenditures are lower than the receipts, gaining in amounts as the years passed. From a surplus of approximately $500,000 in 1910, the fund untouched in 1920 amounted to $10,000,000.

LOVER ACQUITTED OF MURDER AFTER SWEETHEART DIES

BRUSSELS, Mar. 9.—The question whether one person is guilty of a crime in hastening the death of another who is suffering from a mortal wound has been decided in the negative here in the case of a married man who shot and killed a girl who had attempted to commit suicide. His plea was that she was dying and that he killed her rather than watch her suffer. He was arrested but acquitted of the charge of murder by the Brabant Court of Assizes.

The man in the case was Jerome Hermans, 32 years old, and the girl was Coline Vandyck, age 18. They had a love affair and the attempt at suicide resulted. The shooting occurred in the Bois de Cambre, Brussels' largest public park.

"Coline ran from the path into a thicket," said Hermans. "I heard a shot and ran after her. She had shot herself in the temple but was still alive. I could not see her suffer and I took her revolver and shot her in the neck. Then she was still and I shot myself."

Hermans recovered from his wound and was in prison for eight months until acquitted. Medical testimony given at the trial was to the effect that the girl's suicidal wound ultimately would have been fatal.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Winters, who have been in the city for the past week left yesterday for Oklahoma City where they will spend another week on business. They will return to their home in Ft. Worth after having completed their work at that place and plan to stop again in this city before returning home.

Public auction on the main streets of the city has now almost become an established thing. Farm implements, livestock and other farm material are sold here and many buyers gather every Saturday afternoon for the sale. These sales are held every Saturday by good auctioneers and is a good thing for both the buyer and seller.

GOOD PORTION OF CORN IS ON FARMS

Farmers Retain Greater Percentage During Past Year Than Ever.

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 11.—

With 43 per cent of the Oklahoma corn crop yet remaining on farms and 23 per cent of the wheat crop in storage, the monthly crop report of the Oklahoma co-operative crop bureau, issued here today, declares that the percentage of the crops remaining on farms is the largest of recent years.

Compared with 1919, at which time 30 percent of the corn crop was reported remaining on farms, the amount in 1920 was 33 percent and the estimate this year is given at 43 percent. On March 1, last year, 15 percent or 8,100,000 bushels of wheat remained on farms while this year, the report says, 23 percent of 10,600,000 bushels now is on farms or in storage.

The amount of corn shipped out of the counties where grown is shown to be 19 per cent for the fiscal year or 5 percent greater than that of last year. The amount of wheat shipped out of the county was given as 61 percent, as compared with 80 percent in 1916, seventy percent in 1919 and 70 percent in 1920.

Oats also show a gain in the amount remaining on farms—38 percent of the crop, or 18,000,000 bushels still in the hands of the farmers. Oats held on farms last year was 33 percent. Barley shows a smaller percentage remaining on farms, 25 percent, as compared with 30 percent last year.

The growing conditions of wheat, rye, barley and oats is reported good in the report, the soil moisture being ample and the mild weather stimulating growth.

"Indications point to another outbreak of the green-bug" adds the summary, "reports as far west as Washita county, north in Garfield county, northests in Ottawa and generally throughout the south and central portions of the state received by this bureau. Some fields are already beginning to show the effects of the insects' work, which, unless checked by the rapid increase of parasitic enemies, may cause damage during March and April comparable with that of 1907."

Departures from normal of temperature and precipitation during the seasons of 1906-07 and 1920-21 are contained in the report. It is shown that in November, 1906, the temperature was 2.6 degrees below normal, while in the same month in 1920, the departure was 4.2 below normal. The precipitation of the two years was .09 and .29 below normal. February in 1906 had a temperature of 5.8 degrees above normal and in 1920, 5.7 degrees above normal. Precipitations during the month for the two years also were above normal—1.40 inches in 1906 and .84 in 1920.

Little change in the value of farm lands in the state are shown in the report for 1920. Instead of showing a continuation of the steady increase in values as in the past, the report says, farm values have remained stationary.

"The average value of plow lands of poor variety is $29 an acre," concludes the report, "while the good land is priced at $63, or an average of $47. The average value of farm lands with improvements is $55 compared with $49 without improvements."

Cold settled in the muscles of the neck, arms or shoulder makes every movement painful. Use Ballard's Snow Liniment. It relieves the pain and relaxes the muscles. Three sizes 30c, 60c and $1.20. Sold by Hensler & Story.

Preparations are being made to make the Twelfth street park the beauty spot of the city. The Ada fire boys will have charge of the western half as they have had for several years and the boy scouts will have charge of the eastern part. Mr. Miller, scout executive, will supervise the work by the scouts. Flowers, shrubbery and other landscape gardening will be put to the best use.

ANNOUNCEMENT

In keeping with the trend of modern methods of business in other lines, WAIT'S DRUG STORE from now out cannot be said to be far behind.

Most every kind of business except the DRUG business has done their bit to lessen the High Cost of Living and to relieve the embarrassing condition of finance which is a natural sequence of war. Therefore we have decided to "shoulder arms and forward march" with the rest of the boys.

To date there has been no appreciable decline in the price of drugs, in fact there exists at the present time some very marked increases in some things, especially in chemicals. Until about six months ago, however, things were different and we as well as others "got ours" to use every day language; and for that reason we are going to be co-burden bearers in times of stress as well as times of prosperity.

There is only one way this proposition can be successfully met by the druggist and that is to sell for cash and cash only at a small margin of profit. At first this may sound selfish or radical but when one stops to figure that borrowed money draws interest at 10 per cent and this amount can be deducted from profits if cash is at hand to discount bills purchased of the wholesaler.

It is true that some of our 30 day customers are mighty good pay, to whom this announcement may come as a shock, more or less; but we hasten to assure you that no mistrust or insinuations are being hurled at any individual in this procedure but to discriminate as you can see would mean disaster to the undertaking. And too, no certain class of trade is going to be appealed to more than another, but to every one to whom an opportunity to economize is appreciated, we make this appeal. The foundation of success is laid in economy and not credit. Most every town of any size and importance has what is known as a "CUT RATE DRUG STORE" which in truth is not only profitable to the druggist so operating, but to the town and surrounding community as well. Ada, to our mind is pre-eminently such a place, considering the volume of the student trade as well as the adjacent country trade.

The well known "KRESS" and "WOOLWORTH" businesses have been a success for the above stated reasons and WAIT'S DRUG STORE does not propose to be one whit behind them in the future.

Beginning on March 15th, 1921, this place will commence to operate on a small profit—CASH basis and as to future results we have no doubt.

Our success however, rests with all appreciative and co-workers in the effort to restore normal times and put business on a sound basis.

Watch for further announcements and detailed description of cheaper prices on staple articles as well as all other drugs and sundries.

Yours very truly,
M. A. WAITS, DRUGGIST

Boys' Club Entertains

The Boys' Club entertained a number of their lady friends with a social last evening in the studios of Mrs. MacMillan. There was a large number present and the evening was spent in playing games and having a good time in general. The affair was properly sponsored by mothers of the boys, and was voted by all to be the best of the season that has yet been given by this club.

Music was furnished by both piano and phonograph and after having spent a most enjoyable evening, delicious refreshments were served. The guests then departed for home declaring the club to be most royal entertainers. Many more delightful evenings are being planned by the boys.

Ada Boy Takes Show Calves to Oklahoma City Livestock Show

Curtis Floyd, son of County Superintendent A. Floyd, left yesterday for Oklahoma City with his Aberdeen-Angus show calves which he will enter in the Southwestern American Livestock show which will be held there next week. There were nine of the calves in the herd and they are some of the finest of this breed in the county, all a year or under of age. He is confident of winning a prize with some of the calves entered and after the show he will offer them for sale. They are all well built beef cattle and are of the higher class of livestock that farmers want. He has several other calves of this breed which he is keeping for further development of his herd and he also has three young calves that are registered. Curtis has long been a club member and has taken a great interest in stock raising. He is the winner of many prizes with his entries.

'ETERNAL TRIANGLE' ONCE MORE ENDS IN FATAL SHOOTING

Mrs. Cora Orthwein and Herbert P. Ziegler.

"Self-defense" will be the plea of Mrs. Cora Orthwein, thirty-eight, when she is placed on trial for the murder in her luxurious apartments of Herbert P. Ziegler, Chicago, district manager of a well-known tire firm. She says that Ziegler, after a quarrel, returned to the apartment, broke in the door and threatened her. Friends of Ziegler said he had recently promised to end his acquaintance with Mrs. Orthwein to return to his wife. Mrs. Orthwein says the quarrel was caused by her knowledge that he had been with another woman. Mrs. Orthwein is a divorcee.

Dainty Dorothy Captured

We wish to state to the good people of Ada that we have enjoyed and have had many good laughs over the adventures of "Dainty Dorothy" and wish to state that this was our method of introducing our trade mark which will be in the future. Suggestions as to economy and helpfulness, our cleaning plant affords the thrifty housewife or gentleman.

$10 Won by Mrs. Sam Becker

Went by 13th street to Townsend Avenue and north to Bennett Bros. Transfer company, across the street to the Byrd hotel down to Oklahoma State bank. Then crossed to McSwain theater down by Shelton Furniture company. Then went to Surprise store and through said store back to street, and from there back by Burk's, up Townsend avenue and back home. Changed to usual clothes. At 10:42 started out again. Met Mrs. Sam Becker just before reaching fire station, who said in a joking way: "Are you Dainty Dorothy of Auld's Cleaning Works?" Mrs. Becker was very surprised when handed the $10. She thought of course that Dainty Dorothy had been caught earlier in the day. The fire boys wished she had been five minutes later and then the gold would have been safely in the A. F. D. possession.

THE GOOD ROADS MOTOR CLUB IS GETTING RESULTS

McClain and Pottawatomie to meet at the Asher bridge at a given date for the purpose of completing the highway, connecting their respective counties by this bridge at the earliest date possible and that the Pontotoc county commissioner failed to be present at this meeting and with difficulty gained an interview with him, in which he Mr. Laughlin, stated that Pontotoc county had no funds to help build this highway and therefore could do nothing.

Mr. Laughlin, replying to this statement, said that he was the first man to reach the bridge for the meeting and when the others arrived he was with his engineer trying to locate the most feasible approach to the bridge and was returning to the place designated for the meeting when the Pott. county representative was searching for him. Mr. Laughlin stated that it was true that Pontotoc county had no funds to build their portion of the highway but that McClain county commissioner did have the money and would construct this highway if Pontotoc county would agree to reimburse them to the extent of 50 percent of the cost of building this stretch of road when their funds were available. He stated that he had entered into such an agreement and that the other Pontotoc county commissioners would approve of his action in this matter. Up to the present time he had heard nothing to the contrary and the highway on the south side of the bridge is being constructed as rapidly as possible under the plan as outlined above which received the endorsement of the club last meeting.

Dr. Rose representing Allen stated there were three miles of road adjoining Allen on the east, a part of the National highway connecting McAlester with Asher, that was in very poor condition, one mile of this road lying in Pontotoc county, while two miles were in Hughes county. The Hughes county commissioner has agreed to improve the two mile stretch in their county if Pontotoc county will work their one mile of road and unless Pontotoc county does improve this one mile immediately Hughes county will suspend work on this road and will place the crossing at Calvin instead of Allen at all. Dr. Rose who is chairman of the good roads club of Allen stated that he had circulated a petition among the business men requesting them to leave their business and go work this road Monday. Every man signified his willingness to go and work on that day.

Mr. Stall got in touch with commissioner Brumley Saturday morning stating the action of the club, and requested he go at once to Allen to help the Allen folks in this most excellent work. Mr. Brumley gave his assurance that he would go at once and lend any assistance within his power to expedite the work.

The good roads day, March 21, was then brought up for discussion. Joe Cole speaking for the business men of Ada stated that he was sure that every business in town would close its doors from 1 p. m. until 3 p. m., in order that everyone may hear the message of good roads that the club will have in store for them on that date. A committee has been selected to solicit the business men to co-operate in this move. Mr. Roach moved, and the move was approved, that a committee be appointed to see that transportation be provided for everyone to and from the Normal on that date to attend this meeting. A detailed report of these committees will be given out at a later date.—Wm. Emanuel, temporary secretary.

and said he had not added that on direct examination because he was not asked.

Mrs. Hamon was not in the court room today and her son, Jake Jr., was the only member of the family present.

Court adjourned at 12 o'clock, noon, until 9 a. m. Monday.

Minister Testifies.

Constantly interrupted in turn by defense counsel and then by the state, the Rev. T. J. Irwin, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Lawton and the man who delivered Jake L. Hamon's funeral oration, today detailed to the jury in the trial of Clara Smith Hamon his last conference with the dying man.

"This is a frame up by others," Dr. Irwin testified the dying man said, "Three times I have paid her off, but this is the last time," he quoted further. The minister said that Hamon made no specific reference to having been shot by the defendant, with whom Hamon said he had been living for a number of years and who is the former wife of a nephew. That Hamon had repented for the life he had lived was testified by Dr. Irwin, who says he had prayed with the wounded man, had sought to confirm him, and knew that Hamon had prayed and unhesitatingly replied "that's right," when asked by the defense counsel on cross examination if he was still of the opinion expressed the funeral oration that if Hamon had not made his peace with God, then I am lost.

MUSKOGEE, Mar. 12.—Dr. C. V. Rice, a Muskogee physician, will be called as a witness for the defense in the trial of Clara Smith Hamon in progress at Ardmore, Charles Coakley, of the defense counsel, advised the Associated Press correspondent here today.

According to attorney Coakley, Dr. Rice will testify as to dressing wounds alleged to have been inflicted on Clara Smith Hamon by Jake L. Hamon aboard a train in this city four years ago.

HERE IS WINNER AND LITTLE GIRL TRAINER IN AMERICAN DOG DERBY, CHIEF EVENT IN WINTER SPORTS OUT WEST

The American Dog Derby, which is the crowning event among the winter sports out west, has just been run off at Ashton, Idaho. "Tud" Kent, driving seven dogs, won the twenty-five-mile classic in the record-breaking time of 2 hours 1 minute. He was closely pursued by "Smoky" Gaston, who, with a depleted team of five animals, ran a spectacular race and finished second, but 14 minutes later, which was also inside all former records for distance.

Little Miss Clara Colwell of Ashton held up the honor of her sex by entering a team. Although only ten years old, she owns and trains her own dogs. She was too small for the strenuous dash over the snows, however, and so Warren Cordingley drove for her. Miss Colwell was on the starting line with her team though to give it an encouraging send-off. At home her dogs are put to practical use in the winter. When the snow lies heavy they carry her to school.

HISTORIC ST. JOHN AND ITS FAMOUS REVERSIBLE FALLS

TWO BRIDGES AND REVERSIBLE FALLS ST JOHN, BRUNSWICK

St. John, picturesquely situated | than 60,000 people.

on the Bay of Fundy and one of Canada's most important seaports, is often called the "Loyalist City" because it was founded by Loyalist United Empire Loyalists in 1783. It is not only a gateway to the Atlantic coast but to Nova Scotia, as it has been connected by steamer with Digby directly across the Bay of Fundy. From Digby there are rail connections north to Halifax through "The Land of Evangeline" and south to Yarmouth which is but a short sail from Boston. St. John was founded in a single day by 3,000 people who left New York in twenty transports. Since then it has grown to be a city of more

The St. John River, "the Rhine of America," is justly proud of its famous reversible trestle trestle bridge, Grand Falls, which flows seaward part of the day and flows up the Bay of Fundy drops forty feet, and landward it is high tide. Crossing the river near the falls are two great bridges, one a cantilever bridge carrying a railway and the other a bridge for vehicular traffic. Anyone in need of a good, second-hand, steel cantilever bridge can buy this one, for it is to be replaced soon by a 1921 model. St. John is a modern maritime city with a historic past. More than three centuries have passed since Champlain, the first great figure in Canadian history, visited its harbor and gave it the name it now bears.

HARDING'S NEW "FRONT PORCH"

This photograph shows the "front porch" Harding will use for his inauguration. Officially it is called the inaugural stand and after several weeks of untiring efforts this so-called "front porch" was finally completed. Regarding Fire Escapes.
The fire escapes at the High school building were placed there for that purpose and that alone. Since their installation, however, they are being misused and abused and Saturdays and Sundays. In fact, if boys are allowed to continue to climb up them and on the building as they have been doing some boys are going to be seriously injured or killed as a result. The Board of Education, therefore, takes this method of notifying the public that children must not use these fire escapes except for the purpose for which they were built and that any further misuse of them on Saturday or Sunday or at any other time will be considered as trespassing and dealt with accordingly. Notice to this effect has been placed on each fire escape.—Board of Education. 3-9-41d

CHEROKEE NATION GETS NEW LEADER

Heritage Saved for House of Gritts at Recent Election.

(By the Associated Press)

TABLEQUAH, Mar. 11.—The House of Gritts regained the heritage brought down by a long line of illustrious Cherokee statesmen when the remnants of the Cherokee Indian tribe met here and elected Levi Gritts chief of the Cherokee nation.

In what was formerly the senate chamber of the Cherokee nation, where his father led many stirring debates, Levi Gritts was pronounced the tribe's new leader.

Bad Gritts, his grandfather, was a captain in the Civil war, and later was first chief of the Kee Too Wahs, the most powerful tribe of the Cherokee nation.

Daniel Gritts, an uncle, was a delegate of Senator Robert L. Owen before the Indian payment upon whose death Chief Levi Gritts succeeded him as delegate to Washington.

The new chief is 47 years old, a full blood Cherokee and a graduate of the Bacone Indian university of Muskogee and the Tablequah Male seminary at Tablequah. Chief Gritts is now in Washington in the interests of his tribe. Numbered among several important missions which he will attempt to secure is the passage of the jurisdictional bill providing a final recounting for the Five Civilized Tribes of Oklahoma.

The Kee Too Wahs society was founded in 1858 upon a constitution written by Chief Levi's uncle after the dissolution of the Indian government. The society was incorporated under the laws of the United States with the announced purpose of promoting the educational, religious and social welfare of the tribe.

Senator Owen became affiliated with the society when he was chosen to represent the tribe in the collection of immigrant claims. The society opposed the Indian allotment and filed a protest with the government that the Indians were standing on an old treaty. The society is composed of between 8,000 and 10,000 full blood Cherokees.

Two smaller societies, the "Night Hawks" and the Cherokee Provisional Committee, are contained in the tribe, over which Chief Gritts has absolute power. Three executive committees are appointed by each society making a total of 19 delegates. They will meet with Chief Gritts this month to form plans for the administration of his position.

Chief Gritts speaks both the English and Cherokee languages fluently and writes as well in both languages. The characters conceived by Sequoyah in the interpretation of the Creek language are used by the chief. The new leader owns more than 1,000 acres of Cherokee nation land and resides in Muskogee with his wife and two children.

He has been engaged in the real estate business for the past fifteen years.

HOW THEY FALL IN LOVE TOLD BY PROFESSOR

LEWISTON, Mo. Mar. 11.—The whys and wherefores of falling in love, as explained by Dr. Halbert H. Britan, professor of philosophy, to students of Bates College are quite simple.

"The principal reason why people fall in love is because they are so constituted, both physically and mentally that it is the normal, natural thing to do," he said.

"There are two aspects to the question—the natural susceptibility of the individual and the stimulus that calls forth the mental reaction."

"Awakening of true affection is compared in this professor's love story to the preparing and combustion of high power explosives."

"In love, nature has prepared the elements, combined them through countless years, and guarantees the result when some vision of loveliness, some heroic deed or even some insignificant word or act unlocks the stored up energy of the emotional life."

"There is not one, single formula for arousing love. Just as anger or fear, for example, may excite by a wide variety of circumstances and conditions, so love is capable of being awakened by stimuli equally diverse. A beautiful face by no means has the power often assigned to it. It is by no means indispensable nor does it add noticeably to the intensity of the affection felt for its owner. In man beauty is almost wholly subordinate to other attractions."

Dr. Britan puts little faith in love at first sight.

As a summary of the several ages of susceptibility in love Dr. Britan said: "After twenty, incidental remarks will hardly serve to focus attention and to awaken interest; after thirty, the sediment of prolonged experience has settled over the instinct and often so solidified, that toy tools will seldom suffice to break through to the emotion bearing Paleosic stratum of human nature. After this age, falling in love is no longer a matter of instinct. Common-sense, good judgment, a truer perspective of life tend to discount the enthusiasm and exaggerations of life's young dream and demands firmer basis for the happiness to be won."

'Lost' Ad in the News Turned the Trick in Two Hours

Ada, Okla., Jan. 8th, 1921. Yesterday afternoon one of our drivers lost his purse containing about $75. As soon as the matter was reported to my office I had him go immediately to the Ada Evening News office with the view of getting notice of the loss in yesterday's paper and have it reached their office in time for publication, as the paper had gone to press. However, through the courtesy of the management of the News, in less than two hours the notice had been read by at least half of the population of Ada, resulting in location of the purse with contents intact by Mr. Hardy Roach, young son of our popular townsman Mr. H. B. Roach, 523 South Townsend Avenue, and brought to my office about seven last evening.

In this connection I desire to express our appreciation of the honesty and promptness displayed by young Roach, and I feel that if our citizenship was entirely composed of this type of young manhood there would be absolutely no opportunity for failure of success in any laudable undertaking attempted by the future generation of our town and county.

I am taking this method of thanking young Roach that the people of Ada and Pontotoc county may be fully advised as to the type of young men this town is rearing to run our affairs in the future.

I also wish to thank the Ada Evening News for their courtesy and promptness in their efforts to render us all possible assistance in the matter.

Entertainment at Homer School House Was Great Success

A box supper was held at the Homer school house, four miles east of town, yesterday evening for the purpose of securing money to buy equipment for manual training and domestic science classes. The affair was ably planned by the teachers of the school and was considered a great success by those in charge.

Hugh Norris of the Normal school here acted as auctioneer for the selling of the boxes and proved himself to be a master in the art. A cake was voted to the most popular girl after the pies had been sold which was received by Miss Bonnie Lanier.

The sales for the evening netted the total sum of $42.50. There were several Ada people present, among them were Mr. and Mrs. Moser, Mr. and Mrs. Beard, Mr. Huddleston, J. B. Hill, P. A. Pratt, Hugh Norris and Miss Francisco. The teachers in this school are Mrs. Eva Miller, Miss Connie Clark and Miss Ina Brunley.

AMERICAN SOPRANO WINS TRIUMPHS
UNDER OWN NAME IN HAVANA OPERA

Miss Louise Taylor.

Louise Taylor has proved the valor of her American pluck, when, after four years' success in singing leading dramatic soprano roles in Italian opera under the assumed name of Louise Darolce, she won a veritable triumph in "Aida" at Havana under her own name, Taylor. So unqualified was the first acceptance of an American in Havana opera that she was immediately re-engaged for another tour. Now to her following in Italy, South America, Porto Rico, Mexico, Panama, Canada and the United States is added the enthusiasm of the Cubans.

EX-SERVICE MEN
TRIED FOR DEATH OF LONDON TYPIST

LEWES, Sussex, Jan. 8.—(Special.)—All England is following with intense interest the trial here of two ex-service men, Thomas Gray and Alfred Field, charged with the murder of a pretty 18-year-old London typist, Miss Irene Munro.

Although the case is low and sordid even for murder, the public interest is exceptionally strong because of the youth and beauty of the victim, the imperturbable self-assurance of the two prisoners, and the presence of the famous barrister, Sir Edward Marshall, who is defending one of the accused.

This is the third big murder case Sir Edward has defended the past year. In the two previous cases, when things at the beginning looked exceedingly bad for his clients, he won a verdict of "not guilty."

Miss Munro was murdered last August while on her holiday at Eastbourne, presumably on the 19th of the month. The next day a little boy, kicking his way along the beach, stumbled over a human foot half buried in the sand, which led to the discovery of the body.

At the coroner's inquest several witnesses testified that they had seen the two accused men with Miss Munro not many hours before her death.

At the McSwain.
In five feet of bookshelf, Dr. Charles W. Elliott offered the public a liberal education, and in five feet of dainty femininity Universal offers the moviegoers of the world a source of joyous entertainment. The five-foot person in question is Edith Roberts, charming actress and comedienne, who has gradually forced ahead to the very front rank of cinema stars and who now boasts a following enjoyed by few players in the silent drama.

So careful is Universal in selecting stores for Miss Roberts that they prefer to have her idle rather than appear in a photograph that does not do abundant justice to her rare talents. The little actress can be vivacious and fiery, sad or whimsical as the case may be.

require, and she has a number of half-tone moods peculiarly her own. It has been four months since Miss Roberts was last seen on the screen, and she is sure to be welcomed in her latest production, "White Youth," in which she will appear at the McSwain theater today.

Miss Roberts made her first public appearance on the stage as a child, appearing as one of the urchins in Joseph Jefferson's presentation of "Rip Van Winkle." At the age of 6 she was singing and dancing in vaudeville. Several years of intensive schooling followed, and at 13 she was back on the stage, this time contributing to the success of a musical comedy.

Also the last day of the "Sweetheart Shop." Coming Monday "Billious." The Grown Up Babies vaudeville show, an aggregation of the best vaudeville actors obtainable.

At the American.

"The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" is Jack Pickford's first Goldwyn picture. It is the story of a poor but ambitious boy, Chad (Jack Pickford), who runs away from his Cumberland home and after a long journey arrives in a valley known as "The Valley of Kingdom Come." In this place the Shepherd boy's future is moulded. He leaves this divinely named place to become the protégé of a wealthy army major.

Major Buford discovers that the poor shepherd boy is distant related to him and becomes very devoted to Chad and makes it possible for him to obtain an education far better than the ambitious Chad ever hoped for.

When Chad leaves the Valley for Lexington, Ky., he leaves behind him a devoted admirer, Melissa. She learns that her idol has fallen in love with a girl of social position and wealth, and working out of her own mind she gets information about his parents that gives Chad every right to aspire to the hand of the girl he loves. Melissa returns to the mountains sad at heart but contented that Chad is happy.

The plot of this story by John Fox, Jr., also involves some of the incidents of the civil war and the scenes dealing with this part of the picture are very realistic and of absorbing interest. "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" will be shown at the American theater Monday.

Ada Music Lovers
To Hear Famous
Violinist at Recital

Assisted by Mme. Alice McClung-Skovgaard, pianist, and Miss Pearl Witherbee, the "Southern Nightingale," Axel Skovgaard, famous Danish violinist, comes to Ada January 17 for an appearance at the Normal auditorium.

This eminent artist needs no introduction to the American public, having filled more than a thousand engagements from coast to coast. The first violin and teacher young Skovgaard received was when he was five years old. At the age of fourteen Joseph Joachim, the king of violinists, took him as a pupil and he definitely entered upon his career as a violin virtuoso. For three years he was the favorite pupil of this eminent master; for two years a pupil of Carl Halir; four years a pupil, with a three years free honorable scholarship, of the Royal High School of Music of Berlin, Germany; and a five years pupil of the Royal Copenhagen Conservatory of Music. At the age of fifteen Skovgaard was first violinist in the Philharmonic orchestra at Copenhagen; one year later he was the Concert Master and solo violinist of the same orchestra. Following that Skovgaard was solo violinist with the Seandarska Opera of Stockholm, Sweden; three years concertizing in the Scandinavian countries; four years Concert Master of the Berliner High School Orchestra, with several seasons concertizing in Holland, Germany, England and Belgium. Was first Concert Master with the Berliner Philharmonic Orchestra in 1902; first Concert Master of the New York Symphony Orchestra in 1903 and since then has devoted his time exclusively to the concert platform of America and Europe. In 1894 Skovgaard played before the late King Christian of Denmark, at another time before the late King Oscar of Sweden and again for Haakon, the King of Norway. In 1902 he appeared as soloist at the Royal Academy of Music of Berlin with the result that twice the Emperor through Joseph Poachin had him invited to play at private concerts in the Royal Palace in Berlin. Skovgaard has appeared as soloist in Carnegie Hall and various other concert halls in New York City. He has appeared in Boston Symphony Society Hall five times and in Chicago more than twelve times. Skovgaard plays with brain and will and brings emotional intensity under their full control. As a result his work grows and lasts.

I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and you may use these facts as a testimonial."

We will be happy to greet persons of all ages at our Sunday school.

The pastor will preach the second sermon in the series on Stewardship at the 11 o'clock hour. We are exceedingly anxious for all our members to hear this series of sermons. A right view of Stewardship will right a thousand other ills in our attempt to live the Christian life.

She has done a wonderful work and it is with regret that we give her up, however we feel we are fortunate in getting Mr. and Mrs. Davis to take up this work.

The Intermediate B. Y. P. U. will meet at 6:30 with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bell in charge. The Senior B. Y. P. U. will meet at 6:30 with Miss Opal Little, president in charge.

A Letter From Rev. Dunn.
Louisville, Ky., Mar. 8, 1921.
The Ada Evening News,
Ada, Okla.

Dear Friends:—I arrived safe in the city of Louisville, last Saturday evening. Mrs. Dunn did not leave Ada when I did, but left last Saturday and was planning to come by the way of Little Rock to visit some of her relatives there. I am expecting her in a day or two.

Louisville is quite a city. The population is something like 250,000. Mrs. Dunn and I will be located in a part of the city known as Parkland. Parkland used to be a considerable city by itself, but is now a part of the city of Louisville. Our little dog, Fluffles, arrived today. He seemed to be very glad to see me. I fed him and watered him and he barked his "thank you."

It is evident that there is plenty of work here for a minister and his wife. As it is in Ada, so it is here—there are a few persons who might not improperly be designated as sinners. We shall do our best to win them to the higher life.

We are sorry to leave all our friends of Ada, and we take this opportunity of extending our kindest regards to them all. We hope to write to some of them personally, but this will be hard to do until we get settled. Please send our paper to 2208 Wilson, Louisville, Ky., until further instructions. Best to all the News force.
Kindly yours,
C. V. DUNN.

CLUB MEMBERS WILL GET FREE TRIP TO CHICAGO

An agreement has just been completed by E. B. Shotwell, state club leader, and Armour's Bureau of Agricultural Research and Economics, which provides for free trips to Chicago and the International Live Stock Exposition—for the Champion Big club members of the state.

The winner will be selected by the State Club Leader and three members of the state college staff, who will pass on the records of the various club members. The winner will be announced about three weeks before the trip is to be made. The only requirements are that the winner must take the trip and then prepare a brief story of his or her experience at the stock show.

While in Chicago the winners will have a very interesting week's tour outlined, consisting of a day and evening at the stock show, trips through the packing plant, the financial district, museums, department stores, parks, industrial works, and movies, entertainments, eats and everything that goes to make a good time. These trips are well worth working for is proven by the numerous "Thank You" letters received from the 475 club members from 25 different states and Canada.

Any Oklahoma boy or girl can enter this contest by getting in touch with their country club leader, county agent, or by writing to the state club leader direct.

The purpose of Armour and Company in offering these prizes is to stimulate the interest of the farm boys and girls in livestock production by giving them the opportunity for study at the greatest livestock show and center in the world.

CHICAGO & ALTON TO REDUCE WAGES

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 11.—The Chicago and Alton railroad will take steps within a short time to reduce the pay of its employees, W. B. Board, president announced today. The reduction will be made to bring about an ultimate reduction in freight and passenger rates, which now are more than the public can bear, Mr. Board said.

MOVIE OF CLUB MEMBERS IN CHICAGO TO BE SHOWN

Oklahoma club boys and girls will be shown here in the movies. We will see how these young actors behave in the "canyons" of the Loop (Chicago's business district), around the lions cage in Lincoln Park, and in the famous packing plant. This film—"The Visit of the Victors" is the official record of the Junior Boys' and Girls' Tour of Chicago during the week of the International Live Stock Exposition, November 27-December 4, 1920. It was produced by Armour's Bureau of Agricultural Research and Economics, and will be released free of charge to club leaders or persons interested in club work, through the state leader, E. B. Shotwell, Stillwater.

This movie will be of particular interest to the Junior Club members who were fortunate enough to receive a free trip to Chicago for their superior work and efforts in producing more and better agricultural products, and they can see themselves and their newly made friends, totaling 475 from 25 states and Canada, taking in the sights of Chicago.

Every boy and girl who did not attend the show will get a chance to see the "Victors" from the time some of them left for Chicago until all boarded the train for home; also the Nation's best live stock in full dress parade, Lincoln Park with all of its wild animals, the Field Museum, International Harvester Co., Argo Corn Products Co., The Continental and Commercial National bank, Marshall Fields, and a day spent in Armour and Company's packing plant, showing the hogs, cattle and sheep from the time they are killed until they are ready for the butcher shop.

The picture also shows E. T. Meredith, former secretary of agriculture, C. F. Curtis, president of the International Live Stock exposition, J. W. Coverdale, secretary of the American Farm Bureau federation, A. G. Leonard, president of the Union Stock Yards and Transit Co., welcoming the boys and girls as honorary guests of the stock show; also P. D. Armour and F. E. White, vice presidents of Armour and Company, welcoming them as guests of their company.

Date for the Big Musical Event Drawing Nigh

Davis-Fagan.
Miss Helen Davis, the celebrated mezzo-soprano, and Sibyl Sanderson Fagan, a whistler without a peer, assisted by Mr. Willard Osborne, violinist, will be heard in a unique recital at Normal auditorium on the evening of Tuesday, March 22.

Miss Davis is one of the most promising young singers now on the concert stage. She is the possessor of a brilliant voice of glorious quality and an ability to interpret the songs that America loves. She was born in America and has accomplished all her vocal and artistic training entirely here, of which fact she is very proud.

When Sibyl Sanderson Fagan was a tiny girl, she was given to making every body in the family miserable by whistling loudly and eternally. One day, along came a professional whistler to visit the Fagan home in Springfield, Ohio, and Miss Fagan suddenly discovered that she really could whistle "a little better" as she modestly expresses it, than most people. She determined to make a real artistic profession for herself by means of her unusual gift. She studied breathing exercises, which are quite as important in whistling as in singing. Also, she studied the piano until her artistic ideals were developed. It didn't take her long, after beginning piano lessons, to see that her whistling could be made a real art and not an entertaining novelty. Miss Fagan whistles by means of her two fingers. She says she wouldn't even try it any other way, for she can whistle longer and get less tired and avoid blistered lips by using her fingers.

The concert on March 22 promises to be a most unusual treat for the music lovers of Ada.

Cards of admittance may be secured from Ada Music Co. so long as accommodations remain.

There is a world of significance in the fact that our new 6-66 models are being adopted by people who formerly operated only the most expensive American motor cars.

Almost invariably the choice has been made after comparative demonstrations.

We ask you to visit our Dealer and take a demonstration in any 6-66 model. Then, take a second demonstration in any other car—at any price—and compare the results.
